

Independence Day Celebration

“Let’s pledge on this day that we will prove our solidarity and unity to take Pakistan to the new heights of success, doing away with the misconceptions about us.”

So expressed Prof. Faize Zehra Mirza of the Persian Department of University of Karachi, who was invited as the Chief Guest on occasion of the celebration of the 64th Independence Day of Pakistan organized by Commecs College, Karachi on Sunday, 14th August 2011. She further added that winning physical freedom is not a freedom in full sense of meaning; we strongly need to act upon the noble principles suggested by our great leaders. Mr. Safdar Qazi, Member Managing Committee CIBES, was also present as the Guest of Honour to grace the occasion.

The programme was organized with great zeal and fervor depicting the true national spirit of our youth. The young students portrayed very positive image of Pakistan and its uniqueness by designing various posters. To pay tribute to our great leaders, they made patriotic speeches and sang national songs with irresistible energy. In a skit performance, the students highlighted the challenges and problems facing this country and the role and responsibility of the youth in this regard. They renewed their pledge to work tooth and nail for the progress, stability and solidarity of their beloved country. They also vowed to make all their possible efforts and encourage others to free this nation from the shackles of social, economic and political problems. The Guests highly appreciated the sense of patriotism, optimism and responsibility in our youth and expressed their satisfaction over the bright prospects of this nation.

In the end of the programme, the Principal Cdr (Retd) Abdul Razaq PN presented the college shields to the Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour.
